

2023-2024 ALEX Database Access Order Form

Please note: Orders will not be processed without payment.

The 2023 Yearbook is all online. Your subscription runs July 1, 2023 through June 30, 2024 and will give you a range of reports available via the ALEX: Data for Disciples database that are similar to the reports in the print yearbooks of the past. Included will be tables, downloadable reports, and links to:

- Searchable list of ministers with standing along with email contacts if available
- Two-year comparisons for regions
- Top ranked congregations of various sizes for a variety of parameters, fields
- Electronic access to PDF copies of 2011-2021 Yearbooks
- Downloadable statistics for congregations, including 20 years of historical Yearbook data
- Easy access to other data sources such as demographic information for communities, religion statistics sites and organizations

Already available to congregations through their ALEX accounts free of charge, and included for individuals who purchase an ALEX/Yearbook subscription:

- Searchable congregation directory with direct links to websites if available
- Links to general and regional ministry reports from the 2022 calendar year
